

Directorate of Technical Education, Regional Office, Nagpur

in joint collaboration with

G.H.Raisoni College of Engineering, Nagpur

(An Autonomous institute affiliated to RTM Nagpur University)

announces

Project Competition on e-Governance

To promote e-Governance and to achieve stakeholders participation a very innovative competition has been organized by Directorate of Technical Education, Regional Office, Nagpur in joint collaboration with G.H.Raisoni College of Engineering, Nagpur on following themes

GATI – Governance with Accountability
Transparency & Innovation for Citizen-Centric
Services

Financial Inclusion -JAM ( JanDhanYojana, Aadhar & Mobile) & DBT( Direct Benefit Transfer)

Urban Governance in Smart Cities

Cyber Security Framework for Citizen Centric Services

Important Dates

Last date to Send Entry—12 Jan 2016

Preliminary Competition—14 January 2016

Final Display - 21 -22 January 2016

Entries are invited from students of IT & Electronics Background of AICTE approved Engineering colleges. Only one entry each from IT & EC background will be accepted from each college. To choose the best project, participating institute may organize the preliminary competition in their college for all interested students. Entries can be in form of any software/ Mobile App/ idea. There is no entry fee. Any student from UG/PG/PhD can participate

An expert jury will evaluate the project competition. Representatives of DIT, Government of Maharashtra & DARPG, Govt of India will participate as members of the jury.

The two prize winners in the competition will get an opportunity to display their projects in the exhibition being organized at the venue of the 19th National E-governance conference going to be held during 21-22 January 2015 at Nagpur.

How to Apply

Submit Online application through following link

<http://bit.ly/1Re5fJ9>

For details regarding this event please mail to ghrce4116@gmail.com